

Gender Pay Gap Narrative

We conducted a gender pay gap review in 2022 in line with legislation. The figures below are accurate and show both the mean and the median differential in pay between genders across AB World Foods Ltd. As on 5th April 2022.

The AB World Foods Ltd mean gender pay gap is -8.6% in favour of women.

We continuously review our practices to ensure that we take a fair approach in the way we pay all of our employees

	Mean*	Median **
Gender Pay Gap	-8.6%	-12.3%
Gender Bonus Gap	10.3%	-20.8%

The mean pay gap is the difference between average hourly earnings of men and women.*

The median pay gap is the difference between the midpoints in the ranges of hourly earnings of men and women. It takes each person's pay and lines them up in order from lowest to highest and compares the pay at the midpoint.*

	Male	Female
% of employees in receipt of a bonus	86%	86.9%

% employees in each quartile	Male	Female
Upper Quartile	44.6%	55.4%
Quartile 3	66.3%	33.7%
Quartile 2	66.3%	33.7%
Lower Quartile	61.4%	38.6%

Our pay data reflects that we have a balanced representation of males and females working at different levels within our organisation, in particular a relatively equal gender split within our more senior roles.

We believe there is a sustainable competitive advantage in having a diverse talent pool and cultivating an inclusive working environment where everyone can perform at their best. We work hard to ensure that our leaders are well trained in all aspects of people management and our internal HR policies and practices are designed to help us attract, develop and retain talented individuals irrespective of age, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity or other characteristics. Our collective leadership commitment is to make AB World Foods a great place to work, grow and develop for all our employees.

We confirm that to our knowledge and understanding the data and information in this report is factually correct.

Andy Mayhew
Managing Director – AB World Foods Ltd

Carole Lindsay
HR Director – AB Word Foods Ltd

Our people are what makes us special